

With the Oil Men

Ben Elliott, general manager of the Magnolia Shop, which was in full operation July 15, is the oilman business for several days.

J. W. Sharp of the general Refining Company, who is just back from a vacation under the weather and is feeling well, may be the best weather but at all rate his men are quite worried about him.

G. W. Tracy, with C. B. Shaffer was in town yesterday and says that they have taken over about 15,000 acres of leases in Texas, none of which however require immediate drilling. A good sized block is located in Kendall and Kerr counties and other acreage is scattered through Jack Young and Stephens counties. They have also been taking a lot of acreage in the mulgees, Okfuskee and Seminole and Hughes counties and are starting on a big drilling campaign in this state.

Industrial Revival Also Big Factor in Upward Swing of Market on New York Exchange.

NEW YORK. July 10.—Cumulative indications of increasing money ease and additional evidence of recent industrial revival were continuing factors in the further irregular advance of the stock market today.

Early gains of 1 to 5 points were partially offset in the later dealings by extensive offerings, premium and some professional sources.

Initial sales for call loans were 7 to 12 per cent against yesterday's opening quotations of 9 to 10 as low as being quoted in the final hour, although the ruling figure was 7 per cent.

The increase of elastic more than enough to fulfill orders disclosed by the June statement of the United States Steel corporation marked the first gain since October of last year when productions of iron and steel began to develop reactionary tendencies.

Copper prices were further stimulated by purchases for foreign account, increasing the Orient.

Extensive importation of shipping tonnage, along about a substantial amount at the close, stocks also rising easily. Sales, 1,635,000 shares.

Trading in bonds was light and without noteworthy changes. Total sale, par value, aggregated $9,759,000. Gold U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.
